The 1990 American Disabilities Act and the 2008 Amendments Act and What is means to covered employers

Presented as a fast paced yet informative one hour complimentary WEBINAR

$65.00 PER ATTENDEE

The American Disabilities Act, since its institution in 1990 and with the current Amendments in 2008 (effective January 1, 2009), puts new restraints and obligations on employers that set up a board of standards and specifies the interpretation of language in the Act itself.

WHAT IS COVERED IN THIS WEBINAR?

- I. The Original American Disabilities Act of 1990
- II. ADA Amendments Act of 2008 (Effective Jan. 1, 2009)
- III. What it means to Each Employer who must comply
 - The Changes made in the language that broadened the spectrum of the ADA
 - The Unchanged measures
 - The EEOC proposed legislation
- IV. Risks and Liabilities for not being in compliance

The ADA went through many changes in the 2008 Amendment with the broadening of the list of disabilities covered by the ADA and the expansion of the definition of a disability.

The Amendments Act, that instituted the overturning of two key Supreme Court Rulings that are covered in the webinar, goes into exhaustive detail that is key to an employers understanding and following the Act that went into effect on January 1, 2009.

These sessions will be led by Milt Cotter, CEO of CRI (www.criw.com), a nationally recognized leader in the Human Resources arena in the government sector and private industry for over 45 years.
