

CRI www.criuniversity.com

UNDERSTANDING THE ACHIEVER IN THE SELECTION & DEVELOPMENT PROCESS

Presented as a fast paced, informative one hour complimentary WEBINAR on August 19th at 11:00am central (Noon Eastern) and repeated on September 9th & 30th and October 7th & 21st

Objective: To educate users on the background of the Achiever assessment including how the Achiever utilizes benchmarks to enhance job relativity and in-depth training for interpreting results.

TOPICS COVERED

- History & application of job related testing
- Benchmarks – what they are and how to use them
- Job Related Mental Aptitudes (Measured by the Achiever)
 - Mental Acuity
 - Business Terminology
 - Current Events
 - Vocabulary
 - Perception
 - Mechanical Interest
- Behaviors important to successful job performance (Measured by the Achiever)
 - Drive
 - Integrity
 - Personal Organization
 - Interaction with others
 - Ego
 - Leadership Quality
 - Competitive Nature
 - Questioning Ability
 - Psychological Stamina
 - Motivation
- Measurements to Establish Accuracy of the Assessment results
 - Validity
 - Distortion
- Correlations (Interaction between Mental Aptitudes and Behaviors)
- Using the Achiever as a tool for the development of current employees

These sessions will be led by Milt Cotter, CEO of CRI. Milt has been a nationally recognized leader in the Human Resources arena in the government sector and private industry for over 45 years. For more information about CRI's various webinars, visit: www.criuniversity.com

To register online for this webinar, please visit www.criuniversity.com or call Nicole Simon, Conference Coordinator, at (800) 328-1940 ext 102.